COMING EVENTS

On June 13th and 14th a group of Pittsburgh Climbers are planning to join us for some local climbing and dynamic belay practice with Oscar. The tentative schedule is as follows: June 13th Saturday - climbing and belay practice at Carderock. Saturday night - meeting at the Buck's, 4505 Saul Road, Kensington, Md. 7:30 PM (call Peg Keister at OL-9-8398 or OL-4-1400 (2378) for directions). Program not yet definite. June 14th - local climbing - possibly Echo Cliffs or Great Falls. Meet at the Hot Shoppe as usual.

3 May 1953 - Carderock, Md.

As the rains of the past week made it impossible to do any climbing at Great Falls the group journeyed out to (guess where?) Carderock. Jim Bullard, Chris, Eric and Johnny Scoredos stopped off at Camp Lewis to do some climbing but Johnny, we hear, was the only one that did any climbing to speak of.

Ronnie's Leap was climbed by a number of people, as was the Beginner's Crack. Sven Nissen-Meyer made a good showing by doing both the Spiderwalk and the Triple A. Bill Youden did the Spiderwalk for the benefit of some non-climbing picnickers nearby and then almost startled them out of eating their sandwiches by rappelling - seems they thought he was falling off. Jan's Face was given a thorough going over by Earl Reed, Donna Willman, Marion Harvey and Bill Youden, with Bob Stevens doing it the easy. The Barnacle Face also had a few visitors - Shirley, Bill Youden, Paul Burroughs, John Jacobs, Earl Reed, and Bob Stevens. Ted Schad made a valiant attempt at the Knubble Face, but no go.

After climbing, some of the group went to a Howard Johnson Resturant for supper and then to a movie afterward.
