Main north-facing feature of the bay was the appearance of a new 75 parking sign at our usual parking area near the old mill. Most of the children drove around to the west side of the ridge and returned on the street.
 In spite of a fair sized turnout there were few unusual sights (that your reporter saw, anyhow). (John went to the bay with a small group of children back by 4:30 - and he didn't make it back early - that is the only thing I remember other folk got off the ground on it. John, when I think back were the Gwynne, by John, Ann, Bill, Mike, Chuck, and Jim, and the children, next to Charles' track by Carl, Howard also that evening took the children to the Quaker Club.
