IF PETER PIPER PICKED A BATCH OF PICKLED PATCHES....

Here I sit in a rocky expanse
With no label but "Black's" in my climbing pants,
No clue, no item, no mark, no sign,
To aid my rescuers to align
Me with the climbers from whence I came.

An elusive mystery I'd remain
If down this rocky abyss I should slide.
Good heavens! I'd not be identified!
I really don't wish to appear a fanatic,
But an anonymous end would be quite traumatic.

As a wandering cragsman, I must plead--
Endeavor, my friends, to be all agreed!
Your petty objections cast aside, and
Help me to become identified!
Choose a patch from those multitudinous sketches.
Don't be a bunch of indecisive kvetches.
